Audience Comments:

Marie DeBauche 16838 Hobart Ave. Geese poop. Neighbors cut the twine and poles. Excessive geese in the retention pond; twine back extend another 10 feet of twine/pole. Mrs. DeBauche stated that they are over populated and geese poop is not healthy for kids.

President Hastings explained that Public Works Director did a great job for his efforts putting snow plowing poles up with twine. The Village received a number of complaints regarding the twine and wanted to know if we contacted IDNR. It is hindering specific species.

President Hastings asked Chief to look for what else can be done.

Discussion about bus stops.

Reach out to wild life specialist (environmentalist) to give some advice.

Look into coyote decoys.
